JUNIOR EXPERT IN POLICY EVALUATION

EUTALIA SRL – Via Flaminia 888- 00191 Roma

During my professional experience in research and evaluation of interventions in the context of Action I.2 - Mobility and Attractiveness I acquired valuable skills in data collection and analysis using a range of research methods. Under the guidance of the project director, I worked closely with a team of junior and senior experts. Through active participation in discussions and knowledge sharing, this collaborative environment allowed me to develop my critical analysis and problem-solving skills. In addition, working with experienced professionals provided me with invaluable mentorship and guidance that fostered my professional growth and development. This allowed me to utilize my skills in analyzing data, drawing meaningful conclusions, and making informed recommendations. I gained a deep appreciation for the importance of evidence-based decision making in policy formulation and implementation through this role. Overall, this experience provided me with diverse skills and enhanced critical analysis abilities. I am eager to build on these experiences and continue to contribute to the evaluation of impactful policies and to drive positive change.
